

ATTIRE/DRESS CODE

The University's dress code is determined by each department depending upon the function of the area. On the whole, employees are asked to report to work dressed appropriately for the type of work performed.