

LEADERSHIP ROUNDTABLE

CULTIVATING ENGAGEMENT AT UCF

EMPOWER NEW SUPERVISORS

This training will acclimate new UCF supervisors to the common problems that new managers and leaders face and the skills they say they wish they could improve upon.

USING LINKEDIN LEARNING

One of the main training sources participants will use between in-person meetings is LinkedIn Learning. Then, the instructor and participants will review concepts together in bi-weekly meetings.

TAUGHT BY ERIC LITTON

Eric Litton is an educator at the UCF College of Business. Before becoming a professor, he held management and leadership roles in various international nonprofits and government organizations. He has worked in six countries across four continents in areas such as public health, business development, disaster response, and social enterprise; additionally, he has consulted/advised organizations in dozens of other countries.

QUESTIONS?

Contact Lynell Hodge at Lynell.Hodge@ucf.edu.

SPRING 2024 SCHEDULE

All meetings will be in-person from 10AM-12PM at the Digital Learning Center, Room 136A in Research Park.

MARCH 14

MARCH 28

APRIL 11

APRIL 25

MAY 9

COST: $100

Must be submitted by February 29, 2024.

ENROLL TODAY

- 1 Obtain your supervisor's endorsement to participate in the program and email it to HRLearning@ucf.edu.
- 2 Enroll in the course via Workday.
- 3 Prior to the first session, please complete "Lesson 1" of Session 1 to fill out and submit the Inter-Departmental Transfer form. Payment is non-refundable after the due date and may not be applied toward future offerings.