Specific Tasks

- Explain the specific assigned tasks in order of importance
  - Note: Class specifications are not used as assigned tasks on the Position Description as they are only generic guidelines for the minimal tasks that are typically associated with the classification. A Position Description must include the accurate task level duties of the position.
- Indicate with an 'X' in the Essential Responsibilities column the specific tasks that are considered essential to the position
  - Essential Tasks are the core tasks of a position that represent its primary purpose. They are the essential reasons for which the position is budgeted for and maintained. Essential tasks generally cannot be delegated from one position to another, as it would erode the purpose of the position.
- Indicate with an 'X' in the Other Responsibilities column the other tasks that are assigned to the position that are not considered essential tasks

Note: For classification changes, if the tasks assigned to the position have changed since its initial establishment or previous reclassification, note the specific tasks that have been added, removed, or changed.

Position Description Signatures

- Obtain all appropriate signatures for Position Descriptions
- The supervisor on the Position Description should match the "Reports To" supervisor in PeopleSoft
  - To change the supervisor in PeopleSoft, submit a Position Change (for vacant) or Edit (for filled) ePAF
- For position establishment and reclassification actions, submit Position Descriptions to the appropriate Vice President for approval
- For Position Description update actions, submit Position Descriptions to Human Resources
