

BULLETIN BOARDS

Bulletin Boards which provide information for USPS employees are located in certain buildings throughout the various UCF campuses. Employees are responsible for watching these boards for notices which could affect them, such as employment, benefits, and/or other personnel-related information. Approval for posting materials on any specific bulletin board must be granted by the appropriate custodian of such bulletin board.