FACULTY: ACADEMIC YEAR

Employment Agreement and ePAF Dates and Deadlines

- 12-month faculty will be paid over 26.1 biweekly pay periods.
- 9-month faculty employed during the fall and spring semesters will be paid over 19.5 biweekly pay periods.
- 9-month faculty employed for the fall or spring semester will be paid over 9.8 biweekly pay periods.
- Employment Agreements and ePAFs should be dated consistently and submitted to Human Resources-Employment Services & Records by the required deadline dates as follows:

9-month faculty:	Employment Agreements & ePAF Dates	ePAF/Agreement Deadlines*	First Pay Check
Fall & Spring	08/08/18 – 05/07/19	07/09/18	08/17/18
Fall only	08/08/18 – 12/21/18	07/09/18	08/17/18
Spring only	12/21/18 -- 05/07/19	11/19/18	01/04/19
12-month faculty:	08/08/18 -- 08/07/19	07/09/18	08/17/18

Departments are encouraged to submit the ePAFs and agreements to Human Resources as soon as possible prior to the deadline date. Completion of a criminal background check requested through the Talent Acquisition Section is required prior to issuing an employment agreement for all new faculty.

*Only those ePAFs/Employment Agreements for new and continuing faculty received by the 07/09 deadline can be guaranteed inclusion in the first pay period of the semester. ePAFs/Employment Agreements for new and continuing faculty received after 7/09 can and will be processed through 8/8, as possible, but may have to be deferred for implementation for the next pay period.

These dates are based on the assumption that the new hire sign-in documents, ePAFs and agreements for new faculty have been completed and submitted to Human Resources by the required deadlines. Failure to meet these deadlines will delay receipt of the first paycheck.

ePAFs are required for continuing faculty for the following job actions: terminations, earnings distribution (funding) department changes, and home department number changes. ePAFs with an agreement are required for new faculty.

The first check of the fall semester will represent 2 working days (08/08-08/09) and the first check of the spring semester will represent payment for 5 working days (12/21-12/27).

Important Information Regarding New Faculty

New Employee Orientation Session

All new faculty must attend a Human Resources New Employee (Benefits and Payroll) Orientation session. Representatives from Human Resources will be available during the in-person sessions to assist faculty with information regarding benefits and payroll.

All scheduled Human Resources New Employee (Benefits and Payroll) Orientation sessions will be held in the Human Resources Training Room, 3280 Progress Drive, Suite 100, Orlando, FL 32826. Your hiring department will register you for one of the sessions by completing the orientation notice as part of the sign-in paperwork process. Faculty must either attend one of the group sessions to receive information on how to enroll in their benefits.

Enrollment procedures for those who wish to receive a September 1, 2018 insurance effective date are discussed during the New Employee (Benefit and Payroll) Orientation.

Please note: Attendance of New Employee (Benefits and Payroll) Orientation does not guarantee benefit enrollment or that the faculty member will receive his or her first paycheck on August 17, 2018. Only employees who have received a signed employment agreement from the Office of Academic Affairs Administration can be added to the university's payroll and enroll in benefits. Completion and receipt of new employee sign-in documents to Human Resources, along with an approved ePAF and a signed agreement guarantees that the employee will receive a payment on August 17, 2018.

The 2018 New Employee (Benefits and Payroll) Orientation Sessions are scheduled during the following dates and times which will be available for all new line employees.

Friday, August 3rd, 2018	8:30am to 3:30pm

New International Faculty*

- All new international faculty members must meet with an Employment & Taxation Coordinator at UCF Global before Human Resources can finalize their hiring paperwork and add them to payroll. Please refer to the UCF Global website at <http://global.ucf.edu/> for more information on employment guidelines and on applying for a Social Security Number. If you have any questions, please contact UCF Global at (407) 882-0200.

All faculty members except for U.S. Citizens or Permanent Resident Card holders

FACULTY: SUMMER 2018

Appointment Dates and Employment Agreement and Electronic Personnel Action Form (ePAF) Deadlines

- Faculty employed over the Summer A term will be paid over 3.30 biweekly pay periods.
- Faculty employed over the Summer B term will be paid over 3.30 biweekly pay periods.
- Faculty employed over the Summer C or D terms will be paid over 6.50 biweekly pay periods.
- Faculty employment agreements (and ePAFs as needed; please refer to “ePAFs” section below) should be submitted to Human Resources by the required deadlines as follows:

	Employment Agreement & ePAF Dates	ePAF/Agreement Deadline	First Pay Check*
Summer A	05/08/18 - 06/21/18	04/16/18	05/25/18
Summer B	06/21/18 - 08/06/18	06/01/18	07/06/18
Summer C	05/08/18 - 08/06/18	04/16/18	05/25/18
Summer D	05/08/18 - 08/06/18	04/16/18	05/25/18

*These dates are based on the assumption that all appropriate paperwork has been completed and submitted to HR by the required deadlines.

ePAFs for faculty summer appointments are not required. The only exceptions are for new hires or for returning faculty whose earnings distribution (funding) department number(s) and/or home department number are changing, so the information will be different from what is on record currently.

In this regard, please review the earnings distribution (funding) department number(s) and home department number information displayed in the "For Human Resources Use Only" section at the bottom left-hand corner of each employee's employment agreement. Only if this information is changing or an employment agreement revision is required (see "Employment Agreement Revisions" below) will an ePAF need to be prepared and forwarded to Human Resources.

If an ePAF is needed due to a change in the earnings distribution (funding) department number(s) and/or home department number, or as an employment agreement revision, please follow the above mentioned dates and deadlines.

ePAFs must be submitted to terminate any faculty members not returning for the summer or fall semesters. Failure to provide a termination ePAF could result in an overpayment to the faculty member and a recovery fee of 25% of the gross overpayment to the department.

Employment Agreements

To guarantee inclusion in the first payroll of the summer term, Human Resources must receive the signed employment agreement, or a copy signed by Academic Affairs no later than Monday, April 16th. It is the department's responsibility to ensure the fully-executed agreement (signed by the employee) is forwarded to Human Resources-Employment Services & Records. Again, an ePAF is required only in the cases noted above.

Note that all 9-month faculty will have been automatically placed on short work break at the end of the Spring 2018 semester (effective May 8, 2018). These employees will remain on short work break until an employment agreement is submitted to return them to payroll for summer or fall employment, or until an ePAF is submitted to terminate them. Therefore, employment agreements (or ePAFs) are not necessary for faculty who will not be teaching during the summer semester.

Employment Agreement Revisions

REVISIONS TO THE ORIGINAL EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS WILL NOT REQUIRE NEW EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS. Specifically, an increase or decrease in total standard hours or a change in term from A or B to C, etc. will be implemented via the Supplemental Summer Agreement Change Notification form and ePAF, which will serve as an addendum to the employment agreement. In that case, two rules should be noted:

- Changes to the earnings distribution (funding) department number(s) that do not result in an increase or decrease in the total employment agreement FTE or a change to the home department number are not employment agreement revisions and only require an ePAF.
- A new summer employment agreement is required only in cases where the faculty member did not plan to work at all during the summer, and a summer employment agreement was never issued. In those cases, please contact your college Dean's Office for assistance.

Payroll Certifications Based on a 1.00 FTE

The first certifications for Summer A, C, and D terms will be processed during the pay period beginning Friday, May 4, 2018 and ending Thursday, May 17, 2018. These employees will be certified for eight (8) working days from the summer employment agreement. If a summer employment agreement has not been submitted to return the employee from short work break for Summer A, C, or D term, the employee will only be paid through the end of Spring semester (two working days).

Please note that the last certification period for Summer A term, ending June 21, 2018 will be processed during the pay period beginning Friday, June 15, 2018 and ending Thursday, June 28, 2018. These employees will be certified for five (5) working days (June 15-June 21).

The first certification for Summer B term will be processed during the pay period beginning Friday, June 15, 2018 and ending Thursday, June 28, 2018. Employees working Summer B only will be certified for six (6) working days (June 21-June 28). If an ePAF has not been submitted to return the employee from short work break for Summer B term, no payment will be processed.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS: ACADEMIC YEAR 2018 – 2019

Rules Governing Graduate Assistantships

- To facilitate on-time payments, all graduate assistantship agreements/ePAFs must be submitted to the College of Graduate Studies before the HR ePAF deadline on July 10th for annual agreements and academic year agreements. The last day to submit financial support documentation for all continuing students or new domestic students is August 15. The last day to submit financial support documentation for new international students is August 22.
- All academic year agreements should be from August 20, 2018 to May 3, 2019 (academic year), or from August 15, 2018 to August 14, 2019 (annual).
- All agreements will specify either a .25 FTE (10 hours of service per week) appointment or a .50 FTE (20 hours of service per week) appointment. A .50 FTE appointment is considered the university standard graduate assistantship.
- All agreements will specify a stipend level that is commensurate with program stipend levels. Stipend levels must be at least $10,000 for fall/spring agreements for master’s students and $12,000 for fall/spring agreement for doctoral students.
- Timely ePAFs should be submitted for terminations or changes prior to the end date of existing Graduate Assistant agreements. Failure to submit a termination ePAF could result in an overpayment to the student and a recovery fee of 25% of the gross overpayment to the department.

Agreement and Electronic Personnel Action Form (EPAF) Dates and Deadlines

- Graduate Assistantships (job codes 9181-9184, 9186, 9187) will be paid over the number of biweekly pay periods indicated below unless the Agreement/EPAF dates are different from those provided below.

*These dates are based on the assumption that the ePAFs, agreements and new employee sign-in documents have been accurately completed, and that they are submitted by the deadlines indicated above.

Important Agreement and ePAF Guidelines

- In no case should any graduate assistantship activity begin until the appropriate agreement is processed and signed. Therefore, once again, please ensure that all paperwork for new employees is submitted to Human Resources by the published deadline dates.
- All assistantship agreements must be created in the Graduate Financials System managed by the College of Graduate Studies. Access to this system and training requests should be sent to gradassistantship@ucf.edu or contact Jennifer Parham (407-823-4337) in the College of Graduate Studies.
- Graduate Teaching Associates (9183) require a Teaching Qualifications Form to be submitted with the agreement to the College of Graduate Studies, available on the Graduate Studies website.
- The agreement and ePAF beginning and ending dates should always reflect the dates of the employee’s actual work assignment. If the employee’s actual working dates are different from the dates recommended above, the agreement and ePAF must reflect the correct dates.
- ePAFs to terminate graduate assistantship agreements will not be required at the end of each semester. The employees will automatically be terminated at the end of each semester based on the end date indicated on the agreement submitted to hire them for that semester. An ePAF and agreement must be submitted to rehire the employee if he/she returns the following semester.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTSHIPS: SUMMER 2018

Rules Governing Graduate Assistantships

- To facilitate on-time payments, graduate assistantship agreements/ePAFs for the summer semester must be submitted to the College of Graduate Studies before the HR ePAF deadline on April 16. The last day to submit financial support documentation for all continuing students or new domestic students is May 8. The last day to submit financial support documentation for new international students is May 15.
- All agreements will specify either a .25 FTE (10 hours of service per week) appointment or a .50 FTE (20 hours of service per week) appointment. A .50 FTE appointment is considered the university standard graduate assistantship.
- All agreements will specify a stipend level that is commensurate with past stipend levels. Stipend levels must be at least $3,750 for master's students and $4,500 for doctoral students on .50 FTE summer agreements.
- Timely ePAFs should be submitted for terminations or changes prior to the end date of existing Graduate Assistant agreements. Failure to provide a termination ePAF could result in an overpayment to the student and a recovery fee of 25% of the gross overpayment to the department.

Agreement and Electronic Personnel Action Form (ePAF) Dates and Deadlines

- Graduate Assistantships (job codes 9181-9184, 9186, 9187) will be paid over the number of biweekly pay periods indicated below unless the agreement/ePAF dates are different from those provided below.

	Agreement Dates & ePAF Dates	ePAF Deadlines	First Pay Check*	Biweekly Pay Periods
Summer	05/14/18-08/08/18	04/16/18	05/25/18	6.3

Important Agreement and ePAF Guidelines

- In no case should any graduate assistantship activity begin until the appropriate agreement is processed and signed. Therefore, once again, please ensure that all paperwork for new employees is submitted to Human Resources by the published deadline dates.
- Graduate Teaching Associates (9183) require a Teaching Qualifications Form to be submitted with the agreement to the College of Graduate Studies, available on the Graduate Studies website.
- The agreement and ePAF beginning and ending dates should always reflect the dates of the employee's actual work assignment. If the employee's actual working dates are different from the dates recommended above, the agreement and ePAF must reflect the correct dates.
- ePAFs to terminate graduate assistantship agreements will not be required at the end of each semester. The employees will automatically be terminated at the end of each semester based on the end date indicated on the agreement submitted to hire them for that semester. An ePAF and agreement must be submitted to rehire the employee if he/she returns the following semester.

Important Information Regarding Graduate Students

- Students who have been accepted in a graduate degree program and will be employed by the university must be added to the payroll by submitting an Electronic Personnel Action Form (ePAF) and new employee sign-in documents to Human Resources. A graduate assistantship agreement must also be submitted for employees in the following job codes: Graduate Researchers, 9181 or 9182; Graduate Teachers, 9183 (instructor) or 9184 (assistant) and Graduate Grader, 9187; and Graduate Assistant, 9186.
- UCF requires a criminal history background investigation for all new hire graduate assistantship students (job codes 9181, 9182, 9183, 9184, 9186, 9187), as well as for those GTAs, GRAs, and GAs who are being rehired as graduate assistants after being off the university payroll for one year or more. Please see Background Checks at www.hr.ucf.edu before hiring new graduate assistants for instructions on how to have a background investigation completed.

- Graduate students who are enrolled at least half-time, are scheduled to work less than 30 hours per week, and are employed in a graduate student job code, may qualify for exemption from Social Security and Medicare (FICA) taxes during pay periods that overlap with the academic term and during breaks of less than five weeks. Breaks longer than five weeks where graduate students are employed but not enrolled will result in withholding FICA taxes.
- Graduate students who have assistantships are standardly limited to working a maximum of 20 hours per week (.5 FTE) during the fall and spring semesters, regardless of the number of departments in which they have assistantship support. Graduate students whose full-time equivalency (FTE) exceeds .50 must have an approved Supplemental Assignment Form from the College of Graduate Studies. A new form must be submitted and approved by the College of Graduate Studies for each new academic year. The form is available on the College of Graduate Studies website at <https://admin2.graduate.ucf.edu/>. Please note that graduate students who are non-resident aliens on F-1 visas are not permitted to work more than 20 hours per week except during the summer and official school breaks.
- A Supplemental Assignment Form is not required for summer appointments.
- In the summer semester, F-1 students may work up to 40 hours per week (assuming the student is “in status” and has been asked by the employer to work the hours).
- Job code OPSGRD is NOT a graduate assistantship and is not governed by graduate assistantship requirements. OPSGRD is an hourly appointment for enrolled graduate students who are assigned non-graduate assistantship duties (a “job” rather than the professional development experience of research, teaching, or administration). A graduate student cannot be appointed as both OPSGRD and graduate assistantship (9181-9184, 9186, 9187).
- For more clarification, please refer to the current Graduate Catalog and Graduate Guide, available on the College of Graduate Studies website at <https://admin2.graduate.ucf.edu/>.

International Students

- All new international students must complete employee sign-in documents with an Employment and Taxation Coordinator at UCF Global BEFORE the student begins employment. Please refer to the UCF Global website at <http://global.ucf.edu/> for more information on employment guidelines and on applying for a Social Security Number. If you have any questions, please contact UCF Global at (407) 882-0200.

- The agreements and ePAFs for each individual semester should be dated as indicated below, and the ePAFs and agreements submitted to Human Resources by the required deadline dates as follows:

	Agreement & ePAF Dates*	ePAF Deadlines	First Pay Check*
Academic Year	08/08/18 - 05/07/19	07/09/18	08/17/18

- The university's contribution for State Health and Life Insurance must be included in the agreement for each phased retirement program participant. Departmental representatives who have responsibility for preparing the agreements should contact the Benefits Section of Human Resources at (407) 823-2771 or benefits@ucf.edu to determine the university's contribution for each participant.
- When the faculty member retires and begins the phased retirement program, an initial hire ePAF needs to be submitted. An ePAF to terminate the Phased Retiree will not be required at the end of the semester. The Phased Retiree will automatically be placed on leave at the end of each semester based on the end date on the agreement.
- Each time the phased retiree returns, an employment status change (Return from Leave; Return per Phased Ret Plan) ePAF needs to be submitted. An ePAF to terminate the Phased Retiree will not be required at the end of the semester. The Phased Retiree will automatically be placed on leave at the end of each semester. When the ePAF is submitted to return the employee for the final semester in the phased retirement program, you must indicate in the Comments Section "Completion of Phased Retirement Program". Based on this information, the employee will automatically be terminated.

Leave Information for Phased Retirement Program Participants

- Participants will be credited with five days of leave at the beginning of each full-time semester appointment. For less than full-time appointments, the amount of leave credited will be prorated based on the employee's assigned full-time equivalency (FTE). This leave, with appropriate notice and approval, shall be used in 4-hour increments when participants are unable to perform their assigned duties due to their personal illness or injury or that of their immediate family. The leave may be accumulated for future use, but will not be paid at the termination of the re-employment period.
- If participants were previously employed on a 12-month appointment and receive the same or similar assignment, they will be credited with an additional five days of leave at the beginning of each semester appointment. For less than full-time appointments, the amount of leave credited will be prorated based on the employees' assigned FTE. This leave, with appropriate notice and approval, shall be used in 4-hour increments for personal reasons unrelated to illness or injury. The leave may not be accumulated for future use, and will not be paid at the termination of the re-employment period.
- A Leave Audit Form, found on the HR website can be created to show a retiree's beginning leave balance(s). As a retiree uses the leave, the hours can be deducted from the balance. These hours are not recorded in the payroll system.
- Each phased retirement program participant should receive a leave and pay exceptions report, but this form will only be used to document "leave without pay" after the retiree exhausts all leave balances. The leave and pay exception report should be given to the payroll processor to enter LWO into the payroll system and the payroll authorizer would approve the hours. This will ensure that no overpayment situation occurs. Participants should refer to the Phased Retirement Program Agreement for more information regarding the usage of leave.
