Certify

I hereby authorize the University of Central Florida to verify all information contained in this application and my supplement(s) hereto. I certify that all statements in this application are true and complete. I further understand that any omissions, false statements, misstatement, or misrepresentations made by me on this application, or my supplement(s) hereto, may be grounds for rejection from consideration for further employment or immediate discharge.

I acknowledge that if I am hired by UCF, Section 7 of Public Law 2001-43 requires participation in direct deposit for staff, A&P, & Faculty employees as a condition of employment. Candidates will be required to complete an application for Direct Deposit at the time of Payroll sign-in.

OPS employees may be enrolled in the mandatory UCF401(a) FICA Alternative Plan. Please be advised that the FICA Alternative Plan is considered to be a "tax qualified plan" for purposes of determining your ability to make before-tax contributions to an individual retirement account ("IRA"). If your total income (or, if married and filing a joint return, the total income of you and your spouse) exceeds certain levels, you may not be eligible to make before-tax contributions to an IRA due to your participation in the FICA Alternative Plan. Accordingly, you may want to seek the advice of your individual tax advisor before making IRA contributions.

Any retiree with a retirement date of July 1, 2010 or later, must remain off the payroll for 6 full calendar months before they are eligible for rehire. Retirees who are initially reemployed on or after July 1, 2010, will not be eligible to earn another retirement benefit. An individual is considered retired if he or she has received any benefits under the FRS Pension Plan (including DROP) or has taken any distribution (including a rollover) from the FRS Investment Plan, or alternative retirement programs offered by state universities (SUSORP), state community colleges (CCORP), state government (SMSOAP), or local governments (senior management).

Employees of all Public Employers are required to take an Oath of loyalty to the United States and the State of Florida.

I certify that I have read and agree with these statements.
