

The following information provided below is a quick reference to the retention periods for some of the personnel documents utilized at the University of Central Florida. The State of Florida General Records Schedule for state and local government agencies (GS1-SL) and State of Florida General Records Schedule for universities and community colleges (GS5) are the schedules in which the majority of the retention requirements can be found. Please refer to either the GS1-SL: <http://dos.myflorida.com/media/693574/general-records-schedulegs01-sl.pdf> and/or the GS5: <http://dos.myflorida.com/media/693588/g505.pdf> for the retention periods of personnel records.

Details concerning Florida Public Records Act—Scope and Compliance can be found in the University’s Policies & Procedures, under Legal and Compliance: <http://policies.ucf.edu/> . Please read the information on Records Management and records disposal, procedure #4010, which can be found in the UCF Procedure Manual: <http://admfina.ucf.edu/wp-content/uploads/sites/6/4010-3-TBD-Records-Management.pdf> Review the process and obtain proper authorization PRIOR to any records destruction.

STATE OF FLORIDA GENERAL RECORDS SCHEDULE GS1-SL FOR STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT AGENCIES (November 2006 w/09/01/2007, 04/01/2010 & 08/01/2010 revisions)

ITEM	DESCRIPTION	RETENTION PERIOD
ATTENDANCE AND LEAVE RECORDS (LAPERS) #116	This record series consists of requests or applications for vacation, sick, family medical leave act (FMLA), and other types of leave including leaves of absences; time sheets or time cards along with any required documentation (medical statements or excuses from a physician, jury duty summons, or military orders, etc.) submitted by an employee to document authorized absences; reports of leave hours used and accrued during a pay period; and reports of leave balances for all agency employees.	a) Record copy. 3 fiscal years provided applicable audits have been released. b) Duplicates. Retain until obsolete, superseded, or administrative value is lost.
DISCIPLINARY CASE FILES: EMPLOYEES #98	This record series documents the investigation of allegations of employee misconduct and/or violation of department regulations or orders, state or federal statutes, or local ordinances. The series may include, but is not limited to, statements by the employee, witnesses, and the person filing the complaint. Cases include both formal and informal disciplinary proceedings relating to allegations that were determined as sustained, not sustained, unfounded, or exonerated. "Formal Discipline" is defined as disciplinary action involving demotion, removal from office, suspension, or other similar action. "Informal discipline" is defined as any disciplinary action involving written and verbal reprimands, memoranda, or other similar action. These records are filed separately from the employee personnel file, but the final action summary becomes part of the personnel file. See also "EMPLOYEE CONDUCT COUNSELING RECORDS," "PERSONNEL RECORDS" items, and "STAFF ADMINISTRATION RECORDS."	a) Record copy. 5 anniversary years after final action. b) Duplicates. Retain until obsolete, superseded, or administrative value is lost.
ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS	There is no single retention period that applies to all electronic messages or communications, whether they are sent by email, instant messaging, text messaging (such as SMS, Blackberry PIN, etc), multimedia messaging (such as MMS), chat messaging, social networking (such as Facebook, Twitter, etc.), or any other current or future electronic messaging technology or device. Retention periods are determined by the content, nature, and purpose of records, and are set based on their legal, fiscal, administrative, and historical values, regardless of the format in which they reside or the method by which they are transmitted. Electronic communications, as with records in other formats, can have a variety of purposes and relate to a variety of program functions and activities. The retention of any particular electronic message will generally be the same as the retention for records in any other format that document the same program function or activity. For instance, electronic communications might fall under a CORRESPONDENCE series, a BUDGET RECORDS series, or one of numerous other series, depending on the content, nature, and purpose of each message. Electronic communications that are created primarily to communicate information of short-term value, such as messages reminding employees about scheduled meetings or appointments, might fall under the "TRANSITORY MESSAGES" series.

EMPLOYEE CONDUCT COUNSELING RECORDS #206	This record series documents initial coaching or counseling of an employee regarding performance or behavior issues which may lead to disciplinary action if not corrected. If disciplinary action is taken, this record becomes part of the employee's disciplinary case file.
